To request an image reproduction, please provide

1. An outline of the project or interest that prompts the request. If the request is for a publication, please include the publication type, author, title, name of the publisher and publication date.

2. Intended use of the image(s).

3. Any time constraints that should be considered. We strive for a weekly image delivery schedule. If you are requesting images that have already been scanned and have a digital ID number from our website delivery may be earlier.
