Keep Sarasota County Beautiful seeks applicants for annual volunteer recognition

Keep Sarasota County Beautiful treasures its volunteers and is looking for applicants to reward during its annual recognition awards. Selected volunteers will be honored for their leadership in keeping the county free of pollution and litter at KSCB's annual awards banquet on Wednesday, May 21, at the Venice Community Center, 326 Nokomis Ave. S., Nokomis.

"These are people who have taken a leadership role in keeping all parts of Sarasota County free of pollution," said KSCB Manager Sandra Washington. Volunteers will be honored in the following categories:

- Adoption programs – parks, ponds, shores, roads or campuses
- Beautification – commercial and community
- Community cleanups
- Land, air and sea preservation
- Community gardens
- The "Guy Hudson" lifetime achievement award
- Youth, school, scouts and clubs
- The "extra mile" award
- Volunteer of the year
