9-1-1 open house and YMCA Healthy Kids Day

The annual 911 Open House and the YMCA Healthy Kids Day have joined to host a free family health and safety event.

Date: Saturday, April 12

Time: 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Location: 1660 Ringling Blvd., Sarasota County Administration Building

The joint event is held in honor of National Public Safety Telecommunications Week, which honors first responders, and the National YMCA Healthy Kids Day, which encourages children and families to adopt behaviors that support a healthy lifestyle.

The event will feature games for children, including the popular Firefighter's Challenge and Safety City, as well as a Nintendo Wii Tournament, YMCA summer camp experience centers and tours of the 911 Call Center. The first 500 families will receive a free family fitness kit with fitness equipment, outdoor toys and healthy living information.

Safety characters, Terry the Talking Telephone and Red E. Fox, will be make appearances, along with wellness character, Y Guy. Health food and refreshments will be served while supplies last. Prizes will be given away hourly.
