Planning Services to close for training

Sarasota County Planning Services department, Neighborhood Services and Zoning will be closed Friday, Jan. 30, for a staff training session. The offices will reopen Monday, Feb. 2.

During Friday, people who need services from any of these three departments should call the Sarasota County Call Center at 941-861-5000 and leave their name and phone number. Staff from these offices will return all calls and schedule a meeting time if necessary.
