Elvis has left the building, or has he?

Back by popular demand, tribute artist Dwight Icenhower will be performing as Elvis Presley. Along with Icenhower, tribute artist Irv Cass will be performing as Tom Jones in the show, Elvis Meets Tom – Together Again!, at 7 p.m., April 18, at the Venice Community Center, 326 S. Nokomis Ave., Venice.

Born four years after the king of rock 'n' roll passed away, Icenhower has studied every move that Elvis made and has mastered the 50s, 60s and 70s eras of Presley's career. He has performed all over the United States and has many "Elvis Awards" to his credit.

Icenhower is recognized for his good looks and his amazing voice that has sometimes even been mistaken for Elvis himself. Icenhower will be joined by Irv Cass, one of the county's best Tom Jones tribute artists.

Cass is an international award-winning tribute artist with 25 years of show business experience. His talent has allowed him to travel the globe appearing with the award-winning Las Vegas production show, "Legends in Concert." Cass recreates the exact moves, voice and mannerisms of the legend himself.

For more information or to purchase tickets, contact the Sarasota County Call Center at 941-861-5000 and ask about Elvis at the Venice Community Center.
