Brad Bailey named Sarasota County zoning administrator

Brad Bailey has been appointed zoning administrator by County Administrator James L. Ley. Bailey will manage all zoning issues.

“His dedication to the community and the county has been exceptional,” Ley said in appointing Bailey. “He has a well-rounded customer service and regulatory background.”

Bailey, who joined the county 12 years ago, has been acting zoning administrator since last fall. He previously served as permit coordinator for the building department, zoning plans reviewer, land development review coordinator and assistant zoning administrator. In that role, he oversaw plans reviews, Board of Zoning Appeals cases and interpretation of the county’s zoning ordinance.
