Renew your commitment with ‘Say I Do Again’ on America’s No. 1 Beach

Every year on Valentine’s Day, hundreds of people renew their commitment to that special person in their life at Sarasota County Parks and Recreation’s “Say I Do Again” wedding vow renewal ceremony.

This year’s event will be held Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 6 p.m. on America’s No. 1 Beach, Siesta Beach, 948 Beach Road on Siesta Key. Advance registration by Feb. 11 is required and can be done online at www.parksonline.scgov.net or by calling 941-861-7275. This cost is $5 per couple.

“Every year this event gets bigger and bigger, and with Siesta Beach being named America’s #1 Beach in 2011, we are expecting a big turnout,” said Jennifer Groff, Sarasota County Parks and Recreation program coordinator. “It’s the perfect way to spend Valentine’s Day. Sharing a gorgeous sunset on America’s best beach with the person most special in your life just makes for a memorable evening.”

The vow renewal ceremony will be officiated by Judge Becky Titus. Marriage-Works, sponsor of “Say I Do Again,” will provide music and giveaways. Following the ceremony, couples will receive a commemorative certificate and enjoy ceremonial wedding cake from Beautiful Cakes by Ron.
