Sarasota County Government will not be the only recipient of local funding through the American Recovery & Reinvestment Act of 2009. Several significant projects that will impact the Sarasota County community will be funded through the ARRA, but funding will not be given directly to Sarasota County Government. Obviously these funds will not directly impact Sarasota County Government's budget, but will benefit the community as a whole. Below is a list of several ARRA grants that will fund projects or programs within Sarasota County. This is not a comprehensive list of all the projects and programs throughout the community that will be receiving funds.
