

WATER QUALITY SUMMIT

Mollie Holland, who has 14 years of landscape and horticulture experience, is the Sarasota County Neighborhood Environmental Stewardship Team (NEST) program coordinator. Prior to joining the county three years ago, Holland, who has her bachelor's degree in biology from the University of South Florida, previously worked at the Southwest Florida Water Management District as an engineering and environmental compliance technician, permit reviewer and project manager.