

WATER QUALITY SUMMIT

Dr. Pat Williams has been in horticulture for more than 45 years. He holds a doctorate from Texas A&M University in horticulture and has held various positions during his career including teaching adults with developmental disabilities, designing, installing and maintaining landscapes, construction, being a horticultural therapist in New York City, working for the USDA in Washington, teaching in a Texas prison and a Tennessee high school as well as a college professor for 14 years in Kentucky. He started his extension faculty position with the University of Florida/Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences in April 2017 as the Sarasota County Residential Horticulture Agent.