

WATER QUALITY SUMMIT

Rep. Will Robinson is a fiscal conservative, who understands the importance of balancing budgets, keeping taxes low, and ensuring that Florida is able to compete in today's global economy.

Will was born in Bradenton and his family has deep roots in Manatee County. Will's grandfather and uncle founded Robby's Sporting Goods. The family retail business was purchased by Woolworth's in 1988 and eventually merged with Champs Sports.

He is a partner with the Blalock Walters law firm, serves on the Manatee Chamber Board of Directors and formerly served as the Chair of Meals on Wheels Plus of Manatee. Will is a proud graduate of the University of Notre Dame and received his J.D.

from Stetson University College of Law.