

Sarasota County Public Utilities, your sewer service provider, has an important public notification for you. There is an interruption in sewer service in your area. You are receiving this message because Sarasota County Public Utilities is issuing an important notice to all customers affected by this sewer service interruption. Please limit indoor water usage including toilet flushing, showering, dishwashing, laundry, and other water uses until further notice. The county is working to restore sewer service as soon as possible. Once the county has restore sewer service, you will notified that your sewer service has been restored and you may resume normal water usage activities. If you have any questions or would like more information regarding this message, please call Sarasota County Public Utilities Customer Service at 941-861-6790. Thank you.